

User base:

1. Target Audience

Primary Target Audience

University students (18–25 years old)

Especially students studying:

- Digital Humanities
- History
- Marine Science / Oceanography
- Cultural Heritage
- Educational Technology

Why:

- They're already familiar with academic content
  - They can engage with historical/scientific storytelling
  - Twine-style interactive narratives fit educational coursework
-

Secondary Target Audience

High school students (16–18 years old)

Why:

- Curious learners
  - Interactive format makes historical/scientific learning less boring
  - Good introduction to Marsili's contributions
-

Tertiary Target Audience

Casual museum/history/science enthusiasts (25–40 years old)

Why:

- Interested in discovering lesser-known historical figures
  - Appreciate short interactive educational experiences
-

2. Audience Characteristics

Your audience likely:

DemographicsUser

- Age: 16–40
- Students / educators / knowledge enthusiasts
- Comfortable using computers

Psychographics

- Curious and exploratory
- Enjoy interactive storytelling
- Prefer engaging alternatives to textbook learning
- Interested in history, exploration, science, or Italy's cultural legacy

Behavior

- Plays short educational games
- Consumes digital learning content
- Likes choice-based narratives